Dear Parents / Carers,

Thank You Helpers

On Monday we held our special Thank you Lunch and Assembly for all of our wonderful helpers throughout 2014. If you couldn’t make our celebration we extend to you all a very sincere Thankyou for your support at Warnervale in 2014.

Thank you most sincerely to all who help us around the school. We thank you for helping us with Scripture, Home Reading, canteen, transport, covering books, helping in the library, reading groups, for all sorts of classroom activities, help with carnivals ... the list is endless and Warnervale would not be the wonderful place it is without you!

Performances -

K-2 ceremony: Choir, Didgeridoo group, Schools Spectacular Dancers

3-6 ceremony: Guitar group, Didgeridoo group and Choir.

As this is the most formal event in our school calendar we ask you respect these safety and privacy issues:

⇒ do not stand in doorways and around the edges of the hall as we need aisle ways kept clear
⇒ remain seated throughout the ceremony
⇒ turn your mobile phones to silent
⇒ you are not permitted to take videos of any student and please only photographs of your own child
⇒ single seats will be available for those with prams

School Spectacular

Congratulations to our talented, enthusiastic dancers who performed last Friday and Saturday! It was a truly remarkable performance that showcased amazing talent in our NSW Public Schools. I had the privilege of meeting up with the girls and having a meal with them before the Friday evening performance. My thanks to Ms Howick and Mrs Peacock for their support and commitment to our dancers.

Regards,

Ms Jill Carter
Principal

Primary Schools Environment Awards
The Environment Awards were held on the 27th November 2014 and three Environmental Club students and 1J students attended the awards. Warnervale Public School were presented with three awards at the Environment Awards which were: The Great Cook Third Place; Eco Tour Third Place; and Third Place Overall School. Mrs Clarke, Mr Garry and Mrs Jacobs are very proud of these awards and we would like to thank all the students that have worked really hard throughout the year in completing various environmental projects at our school. We would also like to say thank you to Bunnings at Lake Haven and also Wyong Council for the fantastic prizes we received at the Environment Awards which will help us to complete further environmental projects in 2015. We can’t wait for 2015. Mrs Clarke and Mrs Jacobs
